Highlands

9 reasons to make Highlands your place

1. Taking pride in your community

The award-winning Highlands masterplanned community is home to more than 11,000 families. With convenience at your fingertips, and a community feel, it's easy to see why residents have been calling Highlands home for more than 20 years.

2. Inspiring a love of learning from the day they start

Highlanders have access to life-long learning. With 15 schools and three childcare centres, both public and private education options are available to explore. For job seekers, there's access to local training and Hume City Council's employment program available.

3. Giving your kids a carefree childhood

At Highlands, a wealth of natural beauty is never more than a few moments away, with 30 parks, 3 recreation reserves and 3 regional sports fields available. Kids have plenty of opportunities to make the most of their childhood at Highlands with the Golden Sun Moth Adventure Playground, the Hume Global Learning Centre and over a dozen stunning walking and cycling trails.

4. Having trust in your neighbours

At Highlands, neighbours don't just look out for each other, they're friends. With regular local events and free programs, such as Parkrun and Live Life Get Active, Highlands is a uniquely close, welcoming community. It doesn't take long for neighbours to become mates.

5. Having everything at your doorstep

Why not take a break from cooking and enjoy lunch at the Waterside café or a night out with friends at the Highlands Hotel & Entertainment complex? Or, if you want some retail therapy, Craigieburn Central and Craigieburn Junction are right at your doorstop. At Highlands, you're spoilt for choice.

6. Watching the rise of future sports heroes

With its world-class sports and fitness facilities, Highlands is a place where sports and recreation lovers can really thrive. The Highgate Recreation Reserve oval is the size of the MCG and home to regional AFL team, the Calder Cannons. Meanwhile, the Hume Tennis Centre features 16 courts and Splash Aqua Park contains 50m indoor pools and 'megaslides'. If that's not enough, you can get your fitness fix at the Sprint Athletics Centre, Craigleburn Leisure centre, a regional hockey centre, a softball centre and the Craigleburn sporting club and public golf course. And with a rugby reserve and BMX track currently under construction, there's plenty of options to keep you and your family healthy and happy at Highlands.

7. Making environmentally responsible decisions

At Highlands, we take our responsibility to the planet seriously. From our water recycling project and growing conservation areas, to programs designed to regenerate local creeks and waterways, we're doing our bit to keep our neighbourhood green. Sustainable Park at Highlands is further proof of residents' desire to create a healthier and more ecological community.

8. Putting your family's health and wellbeing first

At Highlands, we believe a healthy community is a happy community, that's why we strive to provide the very best in medical and wellbeing services. As well as your local GPs and health professionals, Primary Health Craigieburn can cater to even the most bespoke dental, pathology and x-ray needs.

9. Transport options for every commute

Whether your commute is by train, car or bus, or you just want to go further afield, Highlands has been built to ensure its residents are easily connected. From 5 PTV bus routes, easy access to the Hume Freeway and frequent trains to the Melbourne CBD, at Highlands you're never far from where you need to go.
